

Report on the Fabric of the Church and its Goods and Ornaments

March 2020

The Churchwardens are very pleased to report that the fabric of the church continues to remain in a good state of repair.

We have checked through all the items listed on the inventory and can assure the PCC that all items of value have been checked, are where they should be, and are in good condition, with the following exception:

The restoration of the brass plaque which fell off the wall in the North Chapel and was reported in February 2017 is still awaiting a revised quotation from the conservators following new guidance on the fixing of brass plaques.

Additions to the inventory were the metal stand for the Friends' banner (now located by the south altar), and two carpets for the east end of the nave, purchased by the Friends of the Parish Church.

We are pleased to report therefore that the goods and ornaments of the church are in place and in general in good repair.
